___ We told the owner that the project does not look practicable for the following reason(s):

___ The owner seemed persuaded.

___ The owner did not seem persuaded, so:

___ If in Brattleboro, we advised that they'd need a zoning permit and urged that, before going too far, they talk with Bucossi.

___ If not in Brattleboro, we advised contacting their Town about possible permit and septic requirements.

If the project looked reasonable:

On a scale of 1 to 10 (10 high), how serious are they about proceeding? _____

If serious, are they pretty confident they could finance it? _____

If in Brattleboro, are they interested in RHIP? _____ (We left flyer.)

Here's their general scene and plan:

Any things we should be aware of or pay special attention to? (possible design, code, septic problems or etc.)

Please rate the owner(s) -- 1 to 10 (10 high):

How competent and reliable do you imagine they would be in following through on this project? _____

How easy/agreeable/nice do you imagine they would be to work with? _____

Other thoughts (e.g. is the apartment very important financially?):

How, exactly, were things left?

___ The next move or moves are theirs. If so, what are they?

___ The next move is ours. (If so, please tell them Byron will be in touch. Give them his phone number (257-4691) and urge them to call if they don't hear from him shortly.) What we are to do is this:
